To Whom It May Concern:

Harold Robinson has provided consulting and training services to Sasko Stanger Bakery on Mission Directed Work Teams since 2004. The introduction of MDWT resulted in a significant improvement in our operation. In 2006 Sasko Stanger Bakery was judged second best of all the Sasko Bakeries in the country for the implementation of the program.

Harold's training and coaching review's have been most beneficial to us. He communicates well with everybody in the Company and we appreciate his practical approach. His reports after the coaching reviews have been professional with relevant advice.
